UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
SPACE PLACE

Speakeasy Science*

Join us for an evening of science experiments, demos, and hands-on activities. And the best part - no kids allowed. This is a first of its kind science night you won't want to miss!

DATE: Friday, March 8, 6-9 PM

PLACE: UW Space Place, 2300 S. Park Street in the Atrium of the Villager

COST: $10 (includes one free beverage ticket and snacks)

Tickets will be sold at the door or in advance on our web site (spaceplace.org). Limited number available!

Activities include:

- Make a model comet...and eat it
- Find out what space smells like
- Scale the solar system down to size with play dough
- Visit our astronomical tattoo parlor
- Practice your glow-in-the-dark laser penmanship

*Speakeasy Science is restricted to those 21 years of age and older. All visitors must provide valid photo ID at the door.

Wine, beer, and soda will be available for purchase.
